OPEN-AIR SPORTS.

OCTOBER, 500 Pages. 150 Illustrations.

A SPLENDID HOLIDAY GIFT.

In deference to the growing interest in hearty, amusing, commendable open-air sports and athletic amusements, THE TRIBUNE has prepared a new book on Open-Air Sports, which is more thorough than any ever before printed in America.

It has been written by THE TRIBUNE's own men with the aid of acknowledged experts, and is intended to be a standard work.

Chapters are provided on Archery, Base-ball, with the record of standard playing and of the League and Association matches, and with instructions how to carry a ball; Court Tennis, Lawn Tennis, Football, Cricket, Lacrosse, Hockey, Horsemanship, Cross Country Hunting with a list of the membership of the principal hunting clubs, Yachting, with a discussion of all the small yachts and a comparison of Blook and Cutler, with instructions How to Design, Build, and Sail a Boat; Rowing, Canoeing, Fishing, Water Sports, of the various American games, and the like used to carry on Trap-shooting, Hunting, shooting with shot-guns and rifles, with a description of the different varieties of American wild game. Camping Out, Winter sports, bicycling, Amateur Photography, and a few minor sports. Among the writers who have contributed are William Blakie, author of "How to Get Strong"; Maurice Thompson, the Archery expert; Captain Jacob A. Augur, Cavalry Instructor at West Point; David Kirby and Thomas Chapman, Yacht Builders; Gen. George W. Wingate, rifle expert; George Geiss, Director of Athletics of the New York Athletic Club, and a large number of private gentlemen in the South and throughout the country, who have contributed facts concerning the wild game and hunting sports of their several localities.
